

The idea that this documentary is "news" is ridiculous. Sinclair may want us to swallow this, but we are not stupid. This is exactly what it looks like, one blatantly partisan company doing everything in their power to tip the election. I hope Sinclair's license is pulled.